

REGULATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL IN THE 3B JUDICIAL DISTRICT, CARTERET COUNTY, IN CASES UNDER INDIGENT DEFENSE SERVICES ACT

I. Applicability

A. Generally

These regulations are issued pursuant to Rule 1.5 of the Rules for the Continued Delivery of Services in Non-Capital and Non-Criminal Cases at the Trial Level. They apply to all cases in the 3B Judicial District, Carteret County in which the provision of counsel is subject to the Indigent Defense Services Act of 2000 (G.S. 7A-498 through 7A-498.8) (hereinafter “IDS Act”).

B. Exceptions

1. In cases in which the defendant is charged with first-degree murder, an undesignated degree of murder, or an offense filed contemporaneously with or subsequently joined with such murder charges, the court shall appoint the IDS Office, which shall appoint counsel in accordance with the Rules for Providing Legal Representation in Capital Cases. However, the court shall appoint the Public Defender in the 3B Judicial District in cases in which the defendant or respondent was 17 years of age or younger at the time of the alleged offense and is not eligible for the death penalty; in such cases, the Public Defender shall appoint an attorney from his or her office or a private attorney from the appropriate list.

2. In cases in which a person is entitled to appointed counsel pursuant to G.S. 7A-451 with respect to appeal to the appellate division from an adverse ruling in the trial division, the court shall appoint the Office of Appellate Defender, which shall appoint counsel in accordance with the Rules for Providing Legal Representation in Non-Capital Criminal Appeals and Non-Criminal Appeals. The only exception to this procedure is in cases in which a death sentence has been returned, where the appellate entries made by the court shall reflect that appeal is taken by operation of law and that the Director of the IDS Office has appointed the Office of Appellate Defender. See Rule 2B.2(a) of Rules for Providing Legal Representation in Capital Cases.

II. Administration of Regulations

The Public Defender in the 3B Judicial District (hereinafter “Public Defender”) is responsible for administering these regulations. The Public Defender shall coordinate with the court and the local bar to ensure that these regulations are applied in a fair and impartial manner.

The Public Defender shall designate a member of his or her staff as Administrator of these regulations to keep current the lists of attorneys eligible for appointment and perform such other duties as the Public Defender may determine.

III. Determination of Entitlement to Counsel

In each case subject to these regulations the court shall determine whether a person is entitled to have counsel appointed to represent him or her in the particular case. In cases in which the person must be indigent to receive counsel, the court shall determine indigency. When these regulations describe the functions that a court performs, the term “court” includes the clerk of superior court.

IV. Appointment of Public Defender’s Office

A. Cases Covered

Upon determining that a person is entitled to counsel in the matters listed below, the court shall appoint the Public Defender to represent the person.

1. Defendants in criminal cases;
2. Juveniles in cases in which the juvenile is alleged to be delinquent;
3. Parent-respondents in abuse, neglect, and dependency cases and in termination of parental rights cases;
4. Respondents in incompetency cases filed under Chapter 35A of the North Carolina General Statutes;
5. Defendants charged with contempt in child support enforcement matters.

Upon being appointed as counsel, the Public Defender shall assign the case to an assistant public defender or to private counsel as provided in Article V, below.

B. Notice to Client

In cases assigned to the Public Defender, the court shall provide instructions to the client, in a form provided by the Public Defender, on contacting the Public Defender.

C. Preliminary Determination

Prior to the court’s determination of entitlement to counsel in any of the matters listed above, the Public Defender may pursuant to G.S. 7A-452(a) tentatively assign an attorney from his or her office to represent a person whom the Public Defender determines is entitled to counsel. To help assure the prompt appointment of counsel for in-custody persons, the authority having custody of a person who is without counsel for more that 48 hours after being taken into custody shall so inform the Public Defender pursuant to G.S. 7A-453(a). Tentative appointments by the Public Defender under this provision are subject to later approval of the court.

V. Assignments by Public Defender

A. Determination

As soon as practicable after learning of an appointment, the Public Defender shall determine whether to assign the case to an assistant public defender or to private counsel. Subject to standards approved by the Office of Indigent Defense Services, the Public Defender may assign cases to private counsel based on, among other factors, the caseloads of the assistant public defenders in his or her office. If the Public Defender assigns a case to private counsel, he or she shall record the reasons for doing so.

B. Conflicts

If after being appointed by the court the Public Defender finds that his or her office is unable to handle a case because of a conflict, the Public Defender shall assign the case to private counsel in accordance with the regular rotation in these regulations and any criteria approved by the Office of Indigent Defense Services. If the Public Defender has appeared in the case before discovering a conflict, the Public Defender shall move to withdraw before assigning the case to new counsel.

C. Order of Appointments

1. The Public Defender shall maintain in his or her office lists of attorneys, duly qualified pursuant to Articles VIII and IX below, to handle cases appointed by the Public Defender. Such lists shall be made reasonably available to the public upon request.

2. If the Public Defender finds that the case should be assigned to private counsel, the Public Defender shall assign an attorney from the appropriate list. No appointment shall be made by the Public Defender of an attorney whose name does not appear on one of the lists on file with the Public Defender's Office. In exceptional circumstances, the Public Defender may appoint an attorney who is not on the list with that attorney's consent.

3. The Public Defender shall assign attorneys in the sequence in which they appear on the list except as permitted by these regulations. The Public Defender may appoint an attorney who is not next in sequence if an attorney is unavailable, an attorney has a conflict, another attorney is representing the particular client, or the interests of justice require the appointment of a specific attorney instead of the next available attorney. If the Public Defender passes over the name of an attorney, the Public Defender shall return to that attorney for the next appointment.

4. The Public Defender shall make a record of appointments and make the same reasonably available to the public on request. If the Public Defender appoints an attorney who is not next in sequence or not on the list, the Public Defender shall record the reasons for doing so.

D. Notice

If the Public Defender assigns an assistant Public Defender to a case, the Public Defender shall enter that information in the Case Management System. If the Public Defender assigns a case to private counsel, the Public Defender shall furnish a notice of appointment to the attorney by fax or e-mail and shall enter the appointment information in the Case Management System. The Public Defender shall also file the notice of appointment of private counsel with the Clerk of Superior Court and shall provide a copy to the defendant or respondent and to the prosecutor's office.

E. Withdrawal

Once the Public Defender has issued a notice of appointment of private counsel and filed it with the clerk, only the court may permit the attorney to withdraw. If the court permits the attorney to withdraw, the Public Defender shall assign the case to an assistant public defender or to a new private attorney.

F. Multiple Counsel

1. In assigning cases to private counsel, the Public Defender shall appoint the same attorney on all pending matters concerning the defendant or respondent if the attorney is on the appropriate list.

2. If an attorney is appointed to represent a client on one matter, and the attorney learns that the client requires representation on another matter for which the attorney is not on the appropriate list, the attorney shall notify the Public Defender. If requested by the Public Defender, the attorney shall move to withdraw from the case so that the Public Defender may appoint all of the matters to other counsel who is on all of the appropriate lists.

3. If no single attorney is on all of the appropriate lists, the attorneys appointed to represent the client shall consult with each other to assure that the client's interests are protected.

G. Requests for Substitution of Counsel

For good cause, the Public Defender may request that a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction replace counsel previously appointed by the Public Defender with new counsel selected by the Public Defender.

VI. Appointment of Private Counsel by Court

A. Cases Covered

For persons entitled to counsel in the matters listed below, the court shall appoint counsel in accordance with the procedures described in this article:

1. Minors requesting judicial waiver of parental consent to abortion;
2. Persons responding to show cause orders for contempt of court;
3. Defendants in non-capital motions for appropriate relief in which the court has found that sufficient grounds exist so as to entitle the defendant to a hearing;
4. Persons found to be material witnesses by the court;

The Indigent Defense Services Act and these regulations do not cover assignments of counsel for juveniles alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent; however, the court and the local guardian ad litem program may request the assistance of the Public Defender and the Committee on Indigent Appointments in preparing a list of attorneys qualified to serve.

B. Order of Appointments

1. The Clerk of Superior Court shall maintain in his or her office master lists of attorneys, duly qualified under Articles VIII and IX, to handle cases appointed by the court. The Public Defender, in consultation with the Committee on Indigent Appointments, shall prepare and provide to the clerk such master lists, which shall be made reasonably available to the public upon request. The clerk of court shall distribute copies of such master lists to each courtroom, and the court shall assign attorneys from such lists as provided below.

2. If the court determines that a person is entitled to counsel, the court shall assign an attorney from the appropriate list. No appointment shall be made by the court of an attorney whose name does not appear on one of the master lists on file with the Clerk of Superior Court.

3. The court shall assign attorneys in the sequence in which they appear on the list except as permitted by these regulations. The court may appoint an attorney who is not next in sequence on the list if an attorney is unavailable, an attorney has a conflict, another attorney is already representing the particular client, or the interests of justice require that a specific attorney be appointed rather than the next available attorney. If the court passes over the name of an attorney, the court shall return to that attorney for the next appointment.

4. The court shall record on a form provided by the Public Defender the appointments it makes and shall provide the record to the Public Defender on a monthly basis. If the court appoints an attorney who is not next in sequence, the court shall record the reasons for doing so. This record shall be made available to the public upon request to the Public Defender.

C. Notice

Upon assigning a case to private counsel, the court shall furnish the notice of appointment to the attorney and shall furnish to the client on a form provided by the Public Defender instructions about contacting his or her attorney. If the court appoints a private attorney for an incarcerated person via audio-video transmission, the court shall provide notice to the person about contacting his or her attorney.

D. Multiple Counsel

1. In assigning cases to private counsel, the court shall seek to appoint the same attorney on all pending matters concerning the defendant or respondent if the attorney is on the appropriate list.

2. If an attorney is appointed to represent a client on one matter, and the attorney learns that the client requires representation on another matter for which the attorney is not on the appropriate list, the attorney shall notify the court. The court may remove the attorney from the case so that the court may assign all of the matters to other counsel who is on all of the appropriate lists.

3. If no single attorney is on all of the appropriate lists, the attorneys appointed to represent the client shall consult with each other to assure that the client's interests are protected.

VII. Committee on Indigent Appointments

The Public Defender shall serve as chair of the Committee and shall consult with the Committee as described herein. By applying to be included on a list, an attorney applicant consents to the confidentiality of such inquiries.

C. Removal from List

In consultation with the Committee, the Public Defender may remove an attorney from a list if at any time an attorney no longer meets the standards set forth in Article IX for the list on which he or she is placed, does not meet the performance standards in Article XI, or otherwise fails to meet the responsibilities of representation including, but not limited to, billing in compliance with the Rules of the Commission on Indigent Defense Services, all local rules, and the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct. With the attorney's consent, the Public Defender may place the attorney's name on a list for which the attorney is qualified by virtue of being on the list from which the attorney is removed.

The Public Defender shall afford the Committee an opportunity to consult with the public Defender before an attorney is removed from a list; however, the Public Defender may suspend appointments to an attorney before consulting with the Committee if the Public Defender determines that such action is necessary to assure quality representation.
